President's Corner

We urge all South Pasadena High School alumni to visit the alumni website to find information on your fellow classmates and to input your own information on your individual profile page. Each graduating class has a listing of all of the graduates in that class. The website also includes a list of the teachers and administrators from the high school.

There are sections containing information on reunions, a private messaging system and a Memoriam section where you can remember classmates who are no longer with us. We are starting a project to scan in the yearbook for each of the class websites.

We would like to thank all of you who have joined the alumni association and urge those who haven't to do so. Those who join, receive our much larger Tiger Tales magazine that comes out in the fall. Also, we urge you to contribute to the scholarship funds. All money donated to scholarships goes only to scholarships.

I would like to thank all members of the board of directors who volunteer many hours and receive no compensation for their time except knowing that they are keeping your Alumni Association alive. We welcome any alumni who would like to help.

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS TO HELP THE SECRETARY, THE TREASURER AND PUBLICATIONS

We welcome alumni from any graduating class no matter how old or how young. Call or send me an e-mail if you can help.

Greetings fellow Tigers! Tiger Tales finally was mailed ON TIME last Fall and it is getting rave reviews. Did you get your copy? "No!" you say? Maybe it is because you are not a member of the Alumni Association.

This current issue of Tiger News contains a few articles which would normally appear in Tiger Tales. Nearly 15,000 of you see this magazine, *Tiger News, but only 18% of you are reading the really interesting stuff in Tiger Tales.

Even in these times of recession we are sure most of you with the great education you received at South Pas are able to help your Alumni Association by actually joining for only $12.00 a year. Why not do so today. Check us out at our web sites and join or renew using your credit card. We know you will feel rewarded and proud that you are supporting us.

Regarding reunions, because of our publishing schedules, any reunions held in September will not be included in Tiger Tales unless we receive the input (story and pictures) by September 15th. Anything later than that will be included in Tiger Tales the following year.

Oh, by the way, we could use some additional help in putting our publications together. Here is where you readers come in. Come and join our magazine staff from the comfort of your very own desktop in your very own office in your very own home. What we need now are a few more section editors and idea people. If you are interested, let's talk. Our e-mail addresses and phone numbers are in the list above. We look forward to hearing from you.

SPHSAA Directors Nominated for Election

The bylaws of your Alumni Association specify that all directors serve for a term of one year and must be elected again each year. The term of office is from July 1st to June 30th of each year. In June 2007, our bylaws were amended to permit up to 25 directors. Directors are nominated by the nominating committee appointed by the Board in the spring of each year. The names of those persons nominated are presented in this magazine each year. Election takes place at the Member meeting held at our picnic in Garfield Park in June of each year. This year (2010) the date is June 19th.

We urge members living in or visiting Southern California to attend and vote.

Those nominated for the 2010-2011 term are:

Alumni Association Annual Picnic 2009

About 300 graduates of South Pasadena High School attended the Annual Alumni Association meeting and picnic on Saturday, June 20th, 2009 in Garfield Park. The turnout was the greatest in several years. According to the registration cards submitted, the earliest grad attending was from the Class of 1934, the most recent was from the Class of 2007.

Everyone enjoyed seeing and chatting with fellow classmates and alumni, and especially enjoyed the hotdog lunch and drinks supplied by the Alumni Association.

Door prizes were donated by Gus's BBQ, Bristol Farms, Shaker's Restaurant, Wilde Thyme Restaurant, and Central Park Café. Three other prizes were donated by the Alumni Association.

A musical duo, friends of Board member Bruce Eskander, provided entertainment.

The annual membership meeting was held and the Board of Directors was elected.

This year's Annual Meeting and Picnic will be on Saturday June 19th, 2010, at Garfield Park.

Hope to see you all there.

Members - we need you to participate in our brief annual meeting!

SPHS Seniors are invited!

Your Alumni Association

1. To promote, manage and award scholarship funds for deserving students.

2. To provide a channel of communication among SPHS, its graduates, students, and other persons interested in the welfare of the school.

We communicate via:

Tiger News (this magazine) - to inform all alumni of the activities of the Association and of upcoming events.

Tiger Tales (For Members only) - reunion reports, stories and pictures about alumni and events, tales and more pictures from alumni and obituaries of those who have passed on during the previous year.

Web sites - to provide basic information about the Association, class activities and news of events, past, present and future. Check out the new Class website at:

www.sphsaa-classmates.org.

3. To maintain a database of SPHS graduates and to coordinate reunion activities.

Our master list of alumni has grown since 2001. The information maintained includes member number, class year, names, mailing addresses, e-mail address, phone numbers and status of your membership in the Association. Your contact information is not published but is used for mailing our publications and to provide class member lists to reunion committees.

4. To preserve SPHS memorabilia.

From time to time we receive various items from alumni or the families of deceased alumni. We work with the High School and the South Pasadena Public Library to determine an appropriate disposition of such items, such as collection, display, storage or disposal.

5. To cultivate the heritage and dignify the traditions of SPHS.

We document, communicate, preserve or otherwise take actions which serve to fulfill this objective as seems appropriate.

Charles “Chuck” Cherniss, 1927 – 2003

By David Wardlow

Award winning journalist, advocate for underprivileged children, hospital foundation founding president, community booster, supporter of higher education and youth sports, loyal friend. These are but a few of the terms used to describe Charles “Chuck” Cherniss, South Pasadena / San Marino High School class of 1945.

The son of prominent attorney Sid Cherniss, raised and educated in San Marino public schools, Chuck was probably best known in the Pasadena area as editor and columnist for the Pasadena Star-News from 1962 until his death in 2003, some 41 years. Not one to dodge difficult and complex issues, he was always ready to take on the city governments of Pasadena and its surrounding communities when he believed they were not serving their citizens well. His boss, Ron Wood of the San Gabriel Valley Newspaper Group, stated, “Nothing that was of any importance to Pasadena ever escaped the attention of Chuck Cherniss.” He often presented views that were contrary to or independent of prevailing opinion. As an example, he differed with the city of South Pasadena, especially over the issue of the extension of the 710 Freeway.

Even those officials with whom he sometimes disagreed recognized the value of his opinion. At the time of his death in 2003, Pasadena Mayor Bill Bogard said, “We have lost a powerful voice who advocated that city hall serve solely the public interest. That voice is needed in every community, and Chuck’s voice will be sorely missed.” Former Pasadena Mayor Bill Thompson added, “He was positive about the good things, and quick to express his dissatisfaction when he thought government was doing something foolish. He would mince no words explaining or describing his position.”

He got his start in journalism early in life, serving as editor of The Tiger during his senior year in high school, and while a sophomore at USC began writing articles and columns for the South Pasadena Review. Upon graduation from USC in 1950, his first job was as sports-writer for the old Pasadena Independent. From there he spent the next 12 years in a variety of jobs, including reporter, news editor, sports editor and city editor up and down the state of California at such varied dailies as San Bernardino Sun Telegram, Alhambra Post-Advocate, Los Angeles Mirror-News, San Jose Mercury News, Oakland Tribune, and Los Angeles Times. He returned to the Star News in 1962 and remained there in various editorial capacities until his death. Chuck’s professional accomplishments were recognized for excellence by the National Conference of Editorial Writers.

As impressive as his professional life was, it was surpassed by his volunteer service to the Greater Pasadena area. Just listing the non profit organizations he devoted his time to is an exhausting task: The Pasadena Foundation, Caltech Associates, St. Luke’s Hospital Board of Directors, St. Luke’s Hospital Foundation

Chuck and Maggi Cherniss in 2002

(Founding President) , Greater Pasadena Kiwanis, South Pasadena Jaycees, Pasadena Chamber of Commerce (Vice President), Pasadena Pops Orchestra, Los Angeles Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, Pasadena YMCA, Pasadena Little League, National Conference of Editorial Writers and the Star News Tournament of Toys Operation Santa (Chairman).

All these organizations were an important part of his life, but some seemed more special than others. Perhaps the one Chuck cared about the most, especially in his later years, was the Pasadena Star News Tournament of Toys ‘Operation Santa’. As the founding chairman of this group, and for 23 years thereafter, he led their effort to collect new gifts and toys and distribute them at Christmas to thousands of underprivileged children throughout the San Gabriel Valley. Former mayor Thompson remembered Chuck as one who, “...was very supportive of youth activities ... Chuck epitomized the Pasadena part of the Star News.”

One of the associations he was most proud of was the St. Luke’s Hospital Foundation. As its founding president, Chuck led the group’s efforts to raise more than $3 million for the hospital. He also chaired a Pasadena YMCA fund raising drive, which resulted in the raising of over $700,000 for that organization.

Although a childhood victim of polio, which left him with profound physical disabilities, he was never one to let those disabilities stand in the way of what he believed needed to be accomplished or to have the life he wanted. Friend and classmate Jack Flynn remembered, “Chuck was always such a great sport, because he couldn’t always take part in a lot of things, and was on crutches. But he was always there, always a part of activities and the class. I don’t think I ever heard him complain. Certainly he had enough to complain about, but I never heard him.” Another friend and classmate, Fred Lyte, offered, “If he hadn’t been handicapped, he would be participating heavily in athletics. He was generally the manager of this game or that team.”

Clearly a man of unbridled energy and capability, Chuck was also a man who made friends easily and kept many of those friends for decades. While he sometimes relished the curmudgeonly persona (In 2000, he won the Doo Dah Parade’s first Thorny Rose Prize and the award now carries his name), he was obviously admired and loved by those who knew him well. Tom Coston, President of the Board of the Light Bringer Project observed, “He had a twinkle in his eye and a devilish glint. Under that crusty sea captain exterior was a very nice guy.” Classmate Fred Lyte captured the essence of his long time friend: “He was a very good friend, very loyal to his friends, a very talented guy, a good sense of humor, and a delight to be around.”

A Letter from South Pasadena Educational Foundation

The following does not necessarily represent the views, opinions or recommendations of the Alumni Association, its officers, directors or Members. The message is published as a courtesy to the organization named herein.

Dear South Pasadena High School Alumni,

The excellent education I received from South Pasadena schools provided an invaluable foundation that has supported every dimension of my life since graduating from SPHS. The academic rigor, enrichment, and individual attention that was part of going to school in South Pasadena has set our district apart and has provided thousands of students with what they've needed to create successful and fulfilled lives.

You probably have memories of reasonably sized classes, art and enrichment, the ability to meet with counselors, and so much more. Today, however, many programs and services that have made our schools exceptional - and created a lifetime of memories - are in serious jeopardy.

The situation facing the South Pasadena Unified School District (SPUSD) is dire.

As this letter goes to print:

- SPUSD will receive at least $1,060,000 less from the State next year.
- To remain financially strong, we must plan for more than $2,100,000 of ongoing reductions over the next three years.

- Already scarce instructional supplies will be cut by 25% next year.
- Since almost 90% of the District's budget involves personnel, there is nowhere left to cut except personnel.
- Forty-one (41) SPUSD teachers, counselors and other staff members received pink slips on March 15.

The South Pasadena Educational Foundation (SPEF) continues its 30 year mission to bridge the gap between what South Pasadena school have and what they need. The gap today, however, is so extraordinary that we need your help.

What can you do? With your support, SPUSD can maintain the same high standards that you and I enjoyed while attending school. With your help, we can weather this extraordinary time of crisis and continue to offer the great education that defines South Pasadena and the Tigers. Please donate what you can to SPEF today.

Sincerely,
Julie Giuliani '78, President, SPEF

Update on SPMS Art and Architecture Restoration Committee

The following does not necessarily represent the views, opinions or recommendations of the Alumni Association, its officers, directors or Members. The message is published as a courtesy to the organization named herein.

In 1928, the Junior High system was a new and cutting edge concept in the education community, and South Pasadena Junior High School, currently South Pasadena Middle School (SPMS) opened its doors as one of the first in the nation. A key component of this new school was to support the arts and vocational training for its students. Principal G. Derwood Baker was sought after to speak and write for educational organizations and journals on this innovative new system.

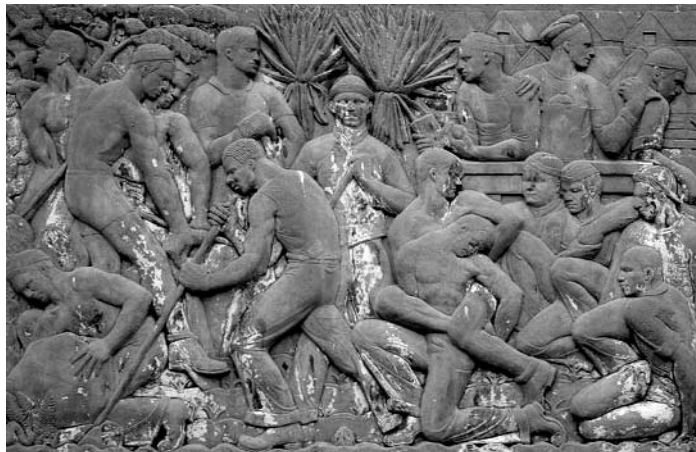

The initial campus was designed by renowned architecture firm Smith, Marsh & Powell and was completed on time and under-budget.

Lucille Lloyd trained at the Art Students League in New York City and the first female artist to work for Bertram Goodhue. Lucille was hired by Smith, Marsh & Powell to complete a majority of the decorative art in the auditorium: the painted ceiling, decorative proscenium surround, and her oil painting "Madonna of the Covered Wagon" which hangs above the stage.

In the early 1930's students in Miss Brown's art class began painting murals, and Principal Baker enlisted Millard Sheets, soon to become the preeminent California regionalist, to speak to the students about their work. Sheets was so impressed by their efforts, he agreed to create a triptych "The Farm, The City and The Harbor" in true wet fresco to grace the northern exterior elevation of the auditorium which were unfortunately painted over, many years ago.

Sheets served on Roosevelt's local WPA committee. Through Sheets, several other connections were made with other important artists who would create works for SPMS. This included Norman Chamberlain whose painting entitled "Indian Ceremonial" has been recently restored and hangs in the auditorium foyer.

Installed on the southern exterior wall of the auditorium hangs a relief by San Diego sculptor Donal Hord entitled "C.C.C. Workers" and is currently the artwork in most desperate need of conservation on campus. Over the years, this important work has been painted, sandblasted, exposed to the elements and generally neglected. It depicts a unique time in California history and features young men of varied ethnicities participating in camp life in a setting of local flora and fauna.

Restoring and preserving "C.C.C. Workers" is the top priority of the SPMS Arts & Architecture Restoration Committee formed in 2009. After consulting with experts, it has been determined it will cost $20,000.00 to remove, restore and reinstall this sculpture in an appropriate location on campus. The SPMS PTSA has dedicated $5,000 towards this important project and time is of the essence before this South Pasadena art treasure is irreversibly damaged.

It is the goal of the committee to address each of the significant works of art on campus. Since the community of South Pasadena and alumni like yourselves have always valued our heritage and unique history, the committee looks forward to your support to preserve and protect our past for the generations to come.

Your tax-deductible donations may be made payable to South Pasadena Middle School PTA at the address below. Please check the website for additional information.

Class of 1954 - 55 Year Reunion

The class of '54 enjoyed its 55th reunion week-end October 23-25; about 40 attended Friday night's San Marino-at-South Pasadena football game, won by SM 41-14. About 40 joined the high school tour the next morning and a similar number had a great lunch at the Firefly Bistro.

Saturday evening's event was at San Gabriel Country Club, where 100 had a delicious buffet dinner and enjoyable music by the Maestros. On Sunday morning at the Flying A Garage, about 40 had a special time seeing the 30 classic cars on display, as well as continental breakfast provided by Mort and Ceil Mortimer.

Our 56th reunion picnic will be held on September 18, 2010, 11a.m.-3p.m., at the Bay Island, Balboa home and gardens of Budge and Carol Collins.
